

HabiTAT VELs Links Level 6

Strand	Domain	Dimension	Element of Learning focus/Standard	HabiTAT Activity number
				Large Trees	Logs	Soil Cover	Flora Tally	Weeds	Canopy Cover	Neighbourhood	Conservation Area	Productive Gardens
			Students...
Physical, Personal and Social Learning	Health & Physical Education	Health knowledge & promotion	identify and describe strategies that address current trends in the nutritional status of Australians. They analyse and evaluate the factors that affect food consumption in Australia.										ü
	Interpersonal Development	Working in teams	work collaboratively, negotiate roles and delegate tasks. Working within the strengths of a team they achieve agreed goals within set time frames. They respect and build on the ideas and opinions of team members	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü
	Personal Learning	The individual learner	seek and respond to feedback from peers, teachers and other adults to develop and refine their content knowledge and understanding, identifying areas for further investigation.They determine the factors that contribute to the creation of positive learning environments	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü
		Managing personal learning	take responsibility for their learning environments, both at school and at home, anticipating the consequences of their actions.	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü
		Civics & Citizenship	Community engagement	develop an action plan which demonstrates their knowledge of a social or environmental issue and suggest strategies to raise community awareness of it.	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü	ü
Discipline-based Learning	Humanities (Economics)	Economic knowledge and understanding	describe how markets, government policies, enterprise and innovation affect the economy, society and environment in terms of employment, economic growth, the use and provision of resources, exports and imports, and ecological sustainability. They discuss and explain what it means to be an ethical consumer and producer and identify examples of ways values can affect the economic decision making of consumers, producers and governments.	ü	ü						ü	ü	ü

